Dr Ing. h.c. F. Porsche AG, based in Stuttgart-Zuffenhausen, is one of the most profitable car manufacturers in the world. The company has plants in Stuttgart and Leipzig and operates a development centre in Weissach. Porsche stands for innovation, with many technologies having their origins in motorsport. Porsche takes a holistic approach to its corporate responsibility: economically, ecologically and socially.

As a sports car manufacturer, Porsche has expertise in lightweight construction for vehicles with regard to their development and corresponding production processes throughout the entire product development process via simulation, design, material substitution, etc., taking into account series size and brand allocation as well as economic efficiency and the environment.
